About Joni Campbell

"I taught art for thirty-two years: grades 1-12 in Shell Lake for ten years, grades K-4 at Spooner Elementary for 21 years, and grades 5-8 at Spooner Middle School for one year. After retiring I missed teaching art so about 8 years ago I started teaching group painting classes. Some of my classes have been taught at adult education programs, local establishments such as coffee shops, wine bars, Shell Lake Senior Center, WITC and private paint parties. After slowing down through the covid period, I'm excited to have the opportunity to join up with the wonderful team at ARTS IN HAND GALLERY to work at STUDIO 210 and offer some acrylic painting classes geared toward beginner- intermediate painters. My hope is that people of all ages can come and create, enjoy, and express themselves with my guidance. You can view some photos of past painting classes on my Facebook page Joyful Canvases & Creations."
